SIGHTSEEING/FEATURES IN PACKAGE:

GUINNESS STOREHOUSE

Location: Dublin, Ireland

What is it: The Guinness Storehouse is Ireland's most popular tourist attraction, offering an immersive journey through the history and craft of Guinness. Set in a seven-story former fermentation plant, the tour ends with a pint and panoramic view of Dublin from the Gravity Bar.

SEAN'S BAR

Location: Athlone, County Westmeath, Ireland

What is it: Officially recognized as the oldest pub in Ireland — and possibly in Europe — with a history dating back to 900 AD. This iconic establishment offers visitors a unique blend of traditional Irish hospitality, live music, and historical intrigue. Inside, you'll find ancient walls, artifacts, and a cozy atmosphere that tells the story of centuries of Irish pub culture.

CLIFFS OF MOHER

Location: County Clare, Ireland

What is it: Towering over the Atlantic Ocean, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most breathtaking natural wonders. Stretching for 8 km and reaching 214 meters high, they offer stunning views, dramatic landscapes, and a rich variety of seabirds.

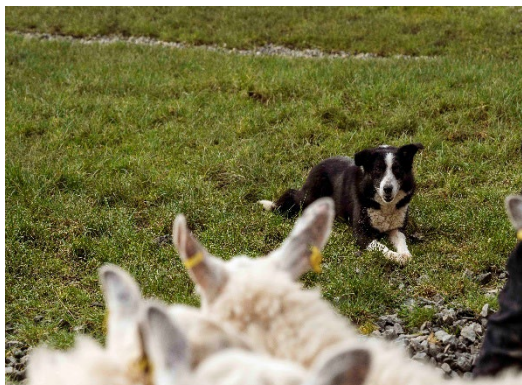

DOOLIN

Location: Doolin, County Clare, Ireland

What is it: A picturesque village on Ireland's west coast, known for its lively traditional music scene, ferry access to the Aran Islands, and stunning views near the Cliffs of Moher and the Burren.

SHEEPDOG DEMONSTRATION

Location: County Sligo, Ireland

What is it: A sheepdog demonstration offers a fascinating look at traditional Irish farming, where skilled border collies expertly herd sheep under the guidance of their handler. Set in scenic countryside, it's an engaging and authentic experience for all ages.

DERRY MURAL'S

Location: Derry City, Northern Ireland

What is it: The Derry murals, especially those in the Bogside area, are powerful public artworks that reflect the city's turbulent history during the Troubles. Painted by the Bogside Artists, they depict key events like Bloody Sunday and the civil rights movement, offering a vivid and emotional insight into the community's journey toward peace and reconciliation.
